Ladies ….. CAN YOU PROTECT YOURSELF?

Dark parking lots, late hours at the office, trips to the mall, attending the gym, jogging outside, grocery shopping, attending school, on dates, babysitting, even at home … This empowering program teaches you how to protect yourfelf with incredibly effective, yet simple self-defense techniques.

The seminar is 60 minutes in length & divided into three parts:

1. We discuss crime and rape statistics in your area.
2. We teach a hands-on self-defense program that shows the participants how to escape from various holds and disable their attackers.
3. We present a weapons scenario and show what weapons are the safest and the most effective.

Featured on the CBS Morning Show, Oprah's Oxygen Channel and in Mademoiselle Magazine, this program has been very popular since its inception and is now available to YOU!

For only $15.00 you will learn the information you need to protect yourself, handouts will be given, plus a free pepper spray! (Or 2 people for $25.00)

Tuesday June 17, 2008 7:00 p.m. Watson Trail Park Activity Center.

The Old Lead Belt Mine Tour

Located in the eastern Ozarks is an area known as the Old Lead Belt. This area was the nation's major source of lead metal for more than 60 years. St. Joseph Lead Co. dominated ore production and became the heart of the Old Lead Belt.

In 1975, the company donated its land and 25 buildings to DNR, and now it has become a state historic site. The site has been developed into a museum that interprets Missouri mining history and displays old machinery and an outstanding mineral collection. After the tour we will visit Rosner's Restaurant. The buffet will include meat loaf, fried chicken, baked fish and much more. After lunch we will tour the Bonne Terre Mine, a national historic site. On this walking tour you will see huge pillar rooms, a trout pond, underground flowers, beautiful calcite falls, and ancient abandoned tools and rail systems. The mine is 65 steps, so wear your walking shoes. Fee includes transportation by van, lunch, fees, tax and gratuity.

Tuesday, July 10, 2008. 8:45 am – 4:30 pm.

Fee: MCM Res $52.00; Non-Res $57.00

Be the next Ace of Cakes

Join veteran cake decorating instructor Jeannie Gearin in the kitchen at the Activity Center for some creative summer fun! We will learn the basics of kitchen safety and the fundamentals of baking. Then the real fun begins when you decorate your own cookies and cupcakes to bring home. Students will learn how to color frosting and fill pastry bags. A variety of beginner level cake decorating techniques will be taught.

Students will help prepare cupcake batter and cookie dough. They will roll out dough and cut cookies with a cutter. Students will be taught how to make decorator frosting and how to adjust the consistency for different techniques. They will help color the frosting and prepare pastry bags with tips and couplers. A practice sheet will be used to learn the proper way to hold a bag and the different bag positions used. They will decorate 2 cookies and 2 cupcakes following step by step instructions. They will be provided with a box to take their treats home. The students will also be given recipes for cookies and frosting made in class. A list of basic decorating supplies needed for decorating at home will also be passed out at the end of class. Class needs a minimum of 9 students for the class to take place with a maximum of 15 students.

Please call the park office at 314-842-7265 to register.

Employees of Sunset Hills

This month we would like to introduce you to Laurie Govreau. Laurie is an employee of the Sunset Hills Administrative Department. She started with the City in November 1999 as the Recording Secretary. Laurie worked for several years in the Public Works department before transferring to the Administrative Department. As recording secretary, Laurie keeps accurate records of all the City meeting minutes, as well as providing support to all department members.

In Laurie's own words;

"I enjoy working for the city as the Recording Secretary and attending meetings. I have had the pleasure of meeting residents at meetings and through the daily operations at City Hall. Residents have been very appreciative of the assistance they receive. I also enjoy working with everyone in the office. We work well together and I feel fortunate to be part of such a great group of people."

"Outside of work I enjoy spending time with family, friends, and my kitties. I enjoy going on float trips, fishing, camping, and many other outdoor activities that involve the sun and water during the summer."

If you have any questions for our Administrative department please call between the hours of 8:00 am and 5:00 pm Monday through Friday at 314-849-3400.
