Old Business

A. New program/creative ideas for 2022

The Committee discussed ideas brought up at last meeting and asked Mr. Brown to report back on:

-Update on electrical/traffic boxes along Lindbergh/Gravios/Watson; Mr. Brown stated that he sent an email to Modot for review, they returned an email today with the following questions/information:

The executive staff is open to the idea but would like some more information regarding the cities plan before proceeding with permits/agreements:

- Submit a sketch of the proposed ‘art’ work.
- Explain the art committee/vetting process you went through to select it.
- Explain what, if any, public/community outreach was involved to date and what is planned prior to installation/what feedback from the community have they received – supportive or not?
- Outline where you’re proposing to place it. What type of materials are you proposing?
- Outline your maintenance plan.

B. Update on Makers Market

Date is April 30, 2022

Ms. Huitt reported that Call to Artists is open, we are now accepting applications through Zapp as we have in past years. We currently have 67 artists registered. Committee discussed ways to improve the Makers Market – bands (more mellow/acoustic), Shuttle – provide from CC to Watson, look for more Demo’s.

Mr. Brown informed the committee that we have secured Foundation sponsor for $2,500.
